

What is Scalp Micropigmentation?

Scalp micropigmentation is all about releasing you from the worries of your baldness or premature ageing looks. Baldness and premature ageing directly affects the confidence and mood of a person. Sometimes it leads to depression. It is our look for which we can be presentable everywhere. If some defect arises in our looks, it certainly fetches our attention making us disappointed.

Per inch of human head contains 2000 hairs on an average. Due to excessive pollution and irregular and unverified use of hair colors and treatment thinning starts to occur from the age of 30 at an average.

Scalp Micropigmentation or SMP is an intricate procedure with guaranteed results for you fully or partially empty scalps. Using advanced methods of cosmetic pigmentation, the treatment is tailored to match your skin tone and type. Experts use highly specialized equipments and techniques to inject pigments into your scalp.

Your head loses hair or thinning occurs due to various unavoidable reasons. Side effect of medication, thyroid problems, alopecia, and sometimes cancer and HIV are responsible for thinning of hair and their fall.

To get to know about this procedure in details, read more of its procedure flowchart in this section -

Step 1 - You have to make an appointment for consultation with some genuine and experienced practitioner of your area.

Step 2 - On the day of the appointment, you receive the consultation along with virtual hairline mock-up. In this session, you are photographed and analysis is done on computer to find the hairline, which suits your face, the most.

Step 3 - This is the first session of your hair fill. Three to four hours is taken to create hairline and do your first fill.

Step 4 - This second session takes two to four hours for fill and setting the texture of your hairline.

Step 5 - This is the final session. Necessary steps are taken to make your hair fill look perfect and natural.

Step 6 - Now aftercare and guidelines are provided so that you can sustain the hairline for the maximum period and do not do any mistake to lose its charm.

How Scalp Micropigmentation helps?

Scalp micropigmentation helps you in various ways. Read more to know the important ones -

- a. Gives you a youthful and full head of cropped hair.
- b. Restores hair and hairlines on partly or fully bald heads.
- c. Mixes and hides, or, camouflages any scarring effect from previous hair transplant surgery or any treatment.

- d. It can hide scar, burns or birthmarks over your scalp.
- e. Boosts you outlook by simulating a full front, side and rear hairline.

This treatment is priced between $1,500 to $3,500, which is suitable for treatment of all types of scalp of any skin tone or type. This treatment is suitable for both men and women.

So, if you are depressed with the thinning and fall of your hair or feeling awkward in bearing the wig, go for scalp micropigmentation which can give you the following benefits –

- Freedom from male pattern baldness.
- Get rid of women's hair loss.
- Cover the Alopecia effect.
- Add hair density to your scalp.
- Covers up scars and birthmarks.
- Above all prevents you to bear that unwanted premature elderly look.